

The Good Life Revealed:

Wisdom from James 3:13-18

Thank you for downloading this James 3 Bible study guide with guided questions!

I'm still working on the full James 3 guide, but I couldn't wait to share these powerful questions that emerged from my own study. Every day, I wake up trying to create a better life for myself. And despite knowing that we can do nothing without Christ, I still find myself trying to figure it out on my own.

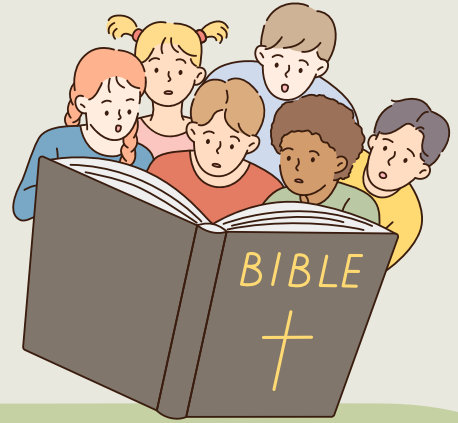

This time, as I read James 3 - after countless times of reading it before - it finally clicked. The Bible's repetition isn't unnecessary; it's God's way of meeting us where we are, revealing Himself in new and meaningful ways. Through this passage, I understood a life-changing truth: God is our good life. Everything else flows through him.

I pray these questions lead you to the same realization.

Copyright © 2025 Honest Pivot. All rights reserved.

The Good Life Revealed:

Wisdom from James 3:13-18

Why do I desire a good life? Before answering, reflect on what motivates your pursuit of a good life. Is it centered on God or personal gain?

According to James 3:13, how is a good life demonstrated, and what is its source?

Based on James 3:13-18, how do we truly attain a good life?

The Good Life Revealed: Wisdom from James 3

What happens when we seek a good life apart from God, according to verse 14?

Where do envy and selfish ambition originate, according to verse 15?

How can we guard ourselves against envy and selfish ambition?